

Leon Stauffer has been a teacher for twenty eight years. Twenty six of those years were spent working in the Oxford Area Schools. He is a graduate of Covenant College, Westminster Theological Seminary, and received his teaching certificate at Millersville University. Mr. Stauffer lives in Quarryville with his wife.

Leon
Stauffer

They attend Faith Reformed Presbyterian Church. They have three grown children and three grandsons. They love spending time with their grandsons and traveling around the country. Part of Mr. Stauffer's philosophy of teaching can be found in Proverbs 17:22a, 'A cheerful heart is good medicine'.